Kerrville (June 5, 2013) – The City of Kerrville is pleased to announce Movies in the Park to be held starting on Friday, June 14 at the Kerrville-Schreiner Park Amphitheater located at 2385 Bandera Highway. This is the first of three for the summer movie series sponsored by The Bosworth Company. Enjoy the summer evening with a family-friendly movie and fresh complimentary popcorn.

The Chronicles of Narnia – The Lion, The Witch, and the Wardrobe will begin at 9:00 p.m., and is sure to be a hit for the whole family. Based on the timeless novel by C.S. Lewis, four London children are sent to a professor's country home during World War II. They stumble into a magic wardrobe which leads to a mystical land called Narnia. Narnia is filled with amazing creatures and the children soon join forces with the lion, Aslan, to fight the evil witch, Jadis, who has cast an icy curse over the land.

Load up the car and bring the kids, blankets and a flashlight for a free evening outside at the movies. Sodas and bottled water will be available for sale for $1.00. Please remember that glass containers are not permitted in the park. Entry to the park and movie is free. "This is a fun and enjoyable way to spend your Friday night with your family and friends," stated Hailey Olden, Recreation Coordinator. "The popcorn is also a nice treat!"
